Dear Mr. C.: I like Danny Kaye's TV programs (although I missed him recently to look at a special that turned out not to be very special) because Danny is always so wonderful with children. I have heard, however, that Mrs. Kaye is in Paris, so I was wondering about the couple's marital status. — Mrs. D. E. Barth, Philadelphia.

Dear Mrs. Barth: It's status quo. After 25 years, it had better be.

Dear Mike: Was Allen Ludden of "Password" ever married before Betty White became his bride and is Betty pregnant? — Doris Burns, Syracuse, N.Y.

Dear Doris: Allen's first wife, Margaret, died. Betty isn't talking — yet.

Dear Mike: I am curious about the ring Judy Garland has been wearing for the past year or so. Is it an engagement ring from Mark Herron? She never seems to be without it. — Maurine Anderson, East Orange, N.J.

Dear Maurine: It's the same ring Mark slipped on Judy's finger in Hong Kong, during the "mock wedding" blessed by a Buddhist monk prior to the couple's State-side wedding, which should be soon.

Dear Mr. C.: Did Cesar Romero ever use the name Anthony Quinn? I saw Bob Hope's "Ghost Breakers" on TV and it certainly looked like Quinn was Romero. — Peg Pettijohn, Ballwin Park.

Dear Peg: Cesar and Tony both had Latin forebears, which may explain the resemblance, but neither has ever doubled for the other.

Sir: What gives with that magnificent Anna Magnani and why don't we see her anymore? — Don Bliss, Richmond, Va.

Dear Don: She prefers La Dolce Vita in Rome to The Swingin' Life in Hollywood, and I can't say I blame her. If you can make it over to Rome on next Jan. 15, that's the night she will match her mezzo-soprano with Barry McGuire's pear-shaped "protest" pipes in a concert. The unconventional couple will duet "The Eye of Destruction" and "Child of Our Times."

Dear Mr. C.: Everyone in America is in agreement with your appraisal of Joan Crawford's fabulous performance on "The Hollywood Palace." She has no peers where beauty, talent, charm, and personal magnetism are concerned. Without question, the lady is uniquely endowed with all the qualities that make for true greatness. When will she pay a return visit to "Palace" and why don't Hollywood's producers find story properties truly worthy of this great talent? — Thomas B. Garner, Birmingham, Ala.

Dear Thomas: Joan has been offered several big parts, including the role of Natalie Wood's mother in "This Property Is Condemned," but has turned them down until roles less gory than the ones she's been playing turn up. She can afford to bide her time. She's so busy (and so rich!) running her soft-drink business. Hollywood has become merely a sideline — bad for us, good for her!

Dear Mike: Is it true The Rolling Stones are atheists? If so, they're off my list! — Betty Trent, Madison Heights, Mich.

Dear Betty: I'm afraid it's true. The exact words of Keith Richard — speaking for himself, Mick Jagger, Charlie Watts, Bill Wyman and Brian Jones — are, "All five of us are atheists and we're not afraid to admit it. I think that quite a lot of kids in their late teens and twenties feel this way, and I am delighted."

Dear Mike C.: Why was the King Family TV program reduced to half an hour? It was one of the nicer hours. It seems to me all the good entertainments are either taken off or given less time. A half-hour is much too short for this show. Will you enlighten me about this? — Mrs. Francis G. McManus, San Carlos, Calif.

Dear Mrs. McManus: I believe it was Beatrice Lillie who first said, "I always quit when I'm ahead, because it's best to leave the audience begging for more." The record shows she was right.

Mr. C.: We are wondering what goes with this "Dick Van Dyke and Julie Harris bit." We went to see "Mary Poppins" and Dick, to us, made the show. So why the great blow off about her? Is it true she gets around with the producers who can help her? She doesn't move as an actress. Send her and The Beatles back home and give us Dick Van Dyke! Peoria Fans, Peoria, Ill.

Dear P.F.: Julie Harris has been doing a show on Broadway, Julie London is a recording star, Julie Jenkins does my laundry. Well, anyway, if you mean Julie Andrews, knock it off because she's a tremendous talent who doesn't have to apple-polish anybody for those big parts she's getting — and Dick is the first to admit it.

South High Schedules College Night Session

Parents of South High seniors have been invited to attend a "planning for college" meeting tomorrow evening in the school cafeteria. The session will begin at 7:30.

Mrs. Ruth Barr and Mrs. Betty Grebel, college counselors, will present information regarding application for admission to colleges, scholarships, and other financial needs and aids.

"Planning for college is an important, frustrating, and time-consuming task," Mrs. Barr said. "Every effort is being made to make this a worthwhile meeting and to supply information which is current," she added.

Parents having questions about the meeting may call Mrs. Barr or Mrs. Grebel at FA 8-8050, ext. 340.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations. Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place. And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing. All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body. This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters.
